Latest advices from St. Petersburgh say that the assassin of the Emperor is a young student named Rousakoff, affiliated to the Nihilists.

The Boer War

The article which we give at foot, from our London colleague the Daily Telegraph, will be read with deep interest by British subjects in the Plate, explaining as it does the full character of this war, the position of our troops, and the feeling of indignation at the policy and mismanagement that have led to such dire results. By late telegram we are aware of the death of Gen. Colley; our colleague explains, however, how very near death he was at the Ingogo river, when he drew off in the night. Sharing as we do views expressed hereunder on the utter impossibility of at present making peace with the Boers, we all the more deplore that, through the gravest of political errors, a brave, industrious people such as the Boers should be compelled to fight for what every liberal Englishman fully admits they are entitled to. The following is our colleague's article—

"Public attention is still naturally fixed on the Transvaal frontier, and anxiety has increased since none can now doubt the completeness of Sir George Colley's latest defeat. By an accident he himself, his guns, and the shattered remnant of his force escapen death or ignominious capture. The Boers took note at sunset of the heavy rain, and saw from the clouds overhead that the storm would continue, for they knew that Sir George Colley was in a trap, that the Ingogo river was swelling behind him, and that its passage must become impossible. They probably disbelieved that the British General would leave his dead and wounded unprotected upon the battlefield all night, and retire under cover of the darkness. They felt sure that they would find the survivors of the fight upon the scene of the struggle next morning, standing by their wounded comrades; and feeling therefore secure of their victims they allowed the night to pass without further attack. But day broke, and when the rebels returned to their posts they saw to their disappointment that the troops had retired during the night, while lying scattered about the slopes beneath them were the British dead and wounded, with the white flag flying. Sir George Colley seems, indeed, to have escaped capture or death by good fortune. Had he attempted to retire an hour earlier the Boers would probably have annihilated his force at the ford of the Ingogo. Had he waited an hour later the ford must have beeen impassable, with the same fate attending him at daybreak. As it was, he crossed the rapidly-rising river at the last moment possible, and baulked the astounded Boers of a triumph which might have been as humiliating as Isandhlwana or Maiwand. The Boers themselves apparently considered the retreat of the British impossible, yet it appears that Sir George Colley, soon after reaching camp, sent back a party to the wounded, and the officer in charge, according to the official telegram, "is believed to have been drowned when crossing the river." Thus our soldiers had an exceedingly narrow escape from slaughter or from shameful capture. The details of the fight itself have already been published, and disaster is written in every line. Our General led his men out, so he told them, 'for a demonstration' and 'to patrol the road;' but they were brought or forced in to such a position that the Boers literally moved along the ridges round and round them, with complete cover all the while, and deliberately made a target of our guns at ranges varying from two to six hundred yards, hitting at once nearly every man who dared to stand up to serve the pieces. To fall back in full sight of the Boers became hopeless, for the Ingogo was behind them, where the rebels would have shot down the horses in the traces as they were coming, and probably picked off while in the water the surviving moiety of our force. There was nothing for it, therefore, but to continue the 'demonstration' until night should fall, and to escape in the dark from the Boer's relentless marksmanship.

Yet this event, this humiliating catastrophe, redeemed from final degradation by our soldiers' valour and the cover of the night, was actually vaunted for a time as a victory by foolish people who proclaimed "the defeat of the Boers with great slaughter." What is the meaning of this? Is the moral fibre of Englishmen so relaxed by repeated humiliation at the hands of unworthy antagonists that anything short of wholesale massacre is welcomed by haphazard critics as honourable to our arms? Have we fixed Isandhlwana as the standard of strategic skill and Maiwand as the criterion of military competence, that we should exult when a British General manages to escape in the dark from the enemy, leaving his woundad to the mercy of a foe from whom he had little right to suppose they would receive mercy? On this occasion the Boers behaved well, it seems, but they had before massacred the 94th, virtually unarmed, murdered a helpless officer whom they had released on parole, killed, for the sake of revenge, the wretched natives in the vicinity of Pretoria, and shot it is said, our wounded men on the field at Laing's Neck, though they kept crying out for mercy. Sir Owen Lanyon states that they have fired again and again under a flag of truce, and it could not be known that they would leave those gallant fellows of the 60th and the 56th alive. The strait of the General was terrible, and we must not hastily condemn him, but it was equally terrible to let his wounded lie on the field at the mercy of men who had already shown our wounded scant grace, protected only by a flag which the rebels did not respect, and telegraphed to England that he had "repulsed the Boers at all points, and brought his force into camp." No doubt his gallant troops stood well, and to save the remnant of them it was perhaps imperative to abandon their wounded comrades. Nevertheless the full truth of that day's work forbids us to accept the statement that the enemy was "repulsed;" and as for those who announced to the country that Sir George Colley had won "a great victory," and who still write of this day of shame as if the honours of the fight had remained with us, they must have strange notions of warfare. It is true, indeed, that our splendid soldiers stood to the guns, though they knew that to serve them was to meet with death, and that the rebels' deadly rifles had no terrors for the brave fellows who took each other's places at the post of honourable peril. Yet what cause for exultation is there in this display by English soldiers of the traditional courage of their service? Our officers acted as usual, with noble devotion, and the rank-and file at the Ingogo fought on to the end and insisted on firing the last shot; but none can regard a disgrace to our arms as a triumph, or boast because some have escaped. There was a time in our island's story when the news of a Maiwand would have united England as one man in the defence of the honour of her flag, instead of exciting only party strife and giving an argument to unpatriotic men for avoiding further chance of conflict with the enemy that had taken our colours and chased our Generals off the field. There was a time when the news of Sir George Colley's failures would have awakened a patriotic ardour in our rulers prompting them to talk of larger reinforcements and increased efforts to assert the Queen's supremacy, instead of, as now, inspiring Ministers to offer sentimental terms of peace to the rebels before they have enforced their submission. To be generous to the vanquished is clemency, but to press favours upon victors is cowardice.

It is difficult, indeed, to hold indignation in check when speaking of such 'foreign policy' as we see pursued on all sides. If an enemy advances to the frontiers of our Empire, our Ministers hasten to discuss plans of abandoning the border strongholds to him. If rebels defy our arms and inflict defeat upon us, we seek the mediation of a common friend in the hope of escaping further conflict. But it is a far more dispiriting sign of the times that this sadly un-English spirit should seem to be taking hold of any fraction of our countrymen, however small in numbers, however consistent in timid counsels. The nation must be losing its ancient and unshaken nerve, to listen with the semblance of patience to suggestions of concession in the dark moment of defeat; and governing men must be growing demoralized by the difficulties of empire to acquiesce in the abandonment of our responsibilities. Ministers are seen standing up in their places in Parliament to assure the country that no exposure of foreign treachery, no disoovery of desperately hostile designs will cause the Government 'to make any alterations in its policy;' but it will be a fatal day indeed when the nation shows itself insensible to such perils and disasters as this spirit surely prepares for it. To negotiate with the President of the Free State upon terms of peace for the rebels' acceptance, and appeal to him to procure their forbearance while our garrisons are beleaguered, and our troops are held as prisoners in their camp, is more amiable than politic, nor should the country too easily applaud such inopportune humility. There is a time for grace and a time for sternness. When Sir Evelyn Wood has shaken hands with Sir Owen Lanyon in Pretoria, and our flag is again acknowledged in the Transvaal, then, if we wish to maintain the Royal authority, we may condescend to listen to the rebels' proposals and demands. As yet, however, we are under the heels of the Boers, and to offer them terms of peace in such circumstances seems surely too much like deprecating further violence and appealing for kind forbearance to be otherwise than distasteful to the majority of Englishmen.

HYDROPATHIC ESTABLISHMENT.

Amongst the many signs of progress in Buenos Aires, Dr Lacroze's hydropathic establishment, in the Calle Piedad 630, occupies a foremost place. Dr Lacroze has introduced the hydropathic treatment in Buenos Aires with the greatest success, and at certain hours the establishment is thronged with persons afflicted with complaints, the names of which are too long and too numerous for our columns.

As you enter the establishment, Mr Richebragues, the attentive superintendent, ushers you into a fine saloon. The neophyte's gaze is immediately fixed on a cylinder parlour 'en miniature,' very like the turret of the ironclad Plata; the whole concern is of iron and herein humanity, complaining of asthma, enfisema, whooping-cough and many diseases of the laryux and pleuritic membranes, is locked, doomed to undergo a treatment of compressed air; the Doctor watches the symptoms through the loop holes and directs the meter; there are at present many persons under treatment.

In a corner you see a tripod, which would remind one of that of the oracle of Delphos, if it were not four yards high; an instrument drops perpendicularly from the angle and you are informed that should you ever suffer from a spinal deviation, inflammation of the vertebræ or disjointure in any part of your thorax you have only to yield your hapless anatomy to the discriminating manipulation of the Doctor, who fastens you by the neck and hooks you under the humeri, hoists you in the air, and, whilst you are dangling from the tripod bandages with the help of plaster and tin-plates nature's deformity, thus successfully and gradually straightening what formerly was a curve, an artistic freak of nature, which always detests the gothic angles.

Can be used with COLD WATER. Sole Agents MOORE & TUDOR, Maypu 95 and 127. Beware of imitations and falsification

In another corner of the parlour stands a queer instrument, invented by a Frenchman; a tube is protruded, passed into your bucal cavity, thrust down the aesophagus into the stomach, and through the duodenum worked into the jejunum and ilium; then an electric battery, or something of the kind, begins operations, and your digestive cavities, sinuosities etc. are reflected; for once we acknowledged the powerful truth of the Greek assertion that there is nothing like 'gnoti sauton.' The instrument is called a poliscopium.

In a side nook we perceive various bottles with filaments and wires attached to various instruments. You are politely asked to open your mouth, and immediately a spray of mineral waters and cauterizing liquids is ejected down the pharynx into the bronchial tubes; people suffering from lung diseases find great relief in this invention.'

Mr Richebragues kindly passed us into the opposite department to inspect the electric room. Here we see two of Trouvet's latest batteries, with 60 elements; a large Gaiff model alongside has 120 elements; there are besides several other batteries of latest inventions. Here those effected with rheumatism, neuralgia, paralysis, muscular laxity, epilepsy, espermatorrea, &c. daily crowd, and depart blessing the man who discovered electricity.

We next enter the splendid mineral baths section, for all imaginable diseases of the skin. Here, if suffering from cutaneous affections, you can indulge in the sulphuric, mercurial, arsenical, ferruginous &c baths. The 'douche' baths are very numerous and all are different. An artesian well supplies the necessary water. The Turkish bath is simply delicious. The steaming room reminds one of Avernus; you are rubbed, scrubbed, steamed, trampled, gently shaken and finally pitched into a delightful cold swimming bath, surrounded with a cultivation and a luxury which makes one think of the delights of the Bosphorus.

Finally, we earnestly advise any of our readers who may suffer from any of the numerous complaints that flesh is heir to to pay the establishment a visit. Ladies have a special department to themselves, identical to the one for men, and attended by persons of their sex. The establishment is a credit to Dr Lacroze and an ornament to the city.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The R.M. steamer Mondego sailed yesterday. The day was most fearfully hot, although there was a slightly clouded sky which somewhat mitigated the sun's glare. A weatherwise subscriber assured us yesterday, on his personal responsibility, that the rain is coming up, and will probably commence to fall early on Saturday morning.

To-morrow will be Saint Patrick's Day, a date dear to all Irishmen. It sees the old land in sad agitation and commotion this year, but, let us hope that there are brighter days at hand, and that 1881 will see the burning question that has so long distracted Erin settled for ever on a just and stable basis. There will be Mass, and Sermon in English, at the Merced Church, at 11 o'clock.

On Sunday last above 60 prizes were delivered, or distributed, to the children of the Scotch Sunday School—one of the many gifts to the school by Thomas Drysdale, Esq. Mr. Drysdale enhanced his gift by delivering two excellent and heart-stirring addresses: one to the children and parents, the other to the teachers. He reminded the parents of their duty to encourage the teachers by every possible means, especially by sending their children regularly to school with their lessons properly prepared, and to visit the school as often as convenient. Mr. Drysdale highly complimented the teachers on the zeal and ability they displayed in their noble work and on the admirable discipline maintained in thrschool. Mr. Dodds, in his genial and felicitous manner, delivered the prizes to the successful competitors. The Elders of the church and a number of friends and relatives from the town and surrounding villages attended the interesting ceremony.

Our native colleagues give glowing descriptions of the two Carnival balls at the Progreso and La Plata Clubs on Saturday night last, and say they were the best ever given by these fashionable associations. The general verdict is unanimous as to the La Plata Club having carried off the palm, for the very simple reason that all the young and pretty girls gave that club the preference, the 'jeunesse dorée' of course flocking after them, while the Progreso's saloons were mainly filled with what a leading native colleague calls 'colorrones y fardos' (Oh! fie, colleague. Macaws and bales! What terms for amiable, if elderly, spinsters and portly matrons! Shoking!) The La Plata Club was so thronged with beauties of every stamp, from 'sweet sixteen' to sweeter 'twenty-two' (we're afraid to venture beyond this latter figure) that, during the greater part of the night, there was no room for dancing, moving about, or anything whatever but flirtation. It must have been a quite too dreadfully delicious ball, and we congratulate the Committee of the Club on their social victory.

The Rev. James Smith will preach on Sunday next at the Cabaña, district of Canuelas. There will be morning and evening service in the Scotch Church in town as usual, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Don Emilio Castro is spoken of as the empresario of a new tramway line, to run through Calles Piedras Independencia, Entre Rios, etc. A further extension of the Lacroze tramway system is also on the cards. Verily, no city in the world can match Buenos Aires as regards tramway accommodation.

We return our best 'emerciments' to the 'Societa Unione Operai Italiani' for cards of invitation for the inauguration of their Exhibition on Sunday. When the Fine Arts are in question we must all take off our hats to our Italian friends, and knowing this, there is a very deep interest taken by all classes in the Exhibition to be inaugurated on Sunday next; and we strongly recommend all our subscribers who have a spark of aestheticism in their souls not to miss visiting it on any account, short of their own funeral.

Mr Manuel Zeballos, an Argentine officer now completing his studies in the Naval School of Spain, writes to Dr Victorica, Minister of War, to the effect that the Escuela Naval here is by no means 'the ticket' and must be levelled up considerably if it is meant to turn out officers with a thorough knowledge of their profession.

We have been favoured with the full text of an eloquent Pantelephonic speech delivered on Sunday last in the Coliseum by Sr Cabanettes, and when the weather gets cooler we'll tackle it. With the thermometer at its present altitude such a feat is out of the question, as it is 32 pages long.

Messrs Jacobsen & Co kindly favoured us yesterday with a copy of the Argentine Army and Navy List. (Escalafon Militar y de Marina) which they have on sale, and which, as they pertinently and concisely remark, is indispensable for some, useful for many, and only costs five miserable paper dollars in fee simple for ever. which is very cheap. The five Brigadier Generals of the army are B Virasora, Juan Pedernera, M. Galarza, E Frias, and Julio A Roca. There are no fewer than 15 Coroneles Mayores, or Generals, and the excessive number of officers of all other ranks, for an army supposed to number only 8000 men, would throw Count Moltke into a rapid decline, and give the Duke of Cambridge an unusually severe attack of gout, if those distinguished personages could get a glimpse at the 'Escalafon.'

Mr Neville Fitzgerald, shipchandler in the Boca, wishes it to be understood that he has received a fresh supply of Hominy, in 5 lbs bags, also some Chicago canned corned beef, ready for use. This Chicago corned beef has now an enormous sale in England, as it is superior to the home made article, and, of course, nothing salted here can approach it.

The grand inauguration of Messrs Baltar and Quesada's Palace Auction Mart in Calle San Martin takes place to-day. The immense and rapid growth of the Live Stock business of this enterprising firm is an eloquent epitome of the progress of this great grazing country for some years past. One would think that both Baltar and Quesada had been born in New York or Boston instead of Buenos Aires, they know so well how to go right slick ahead, and keep ahead.

Mr Thomas Wheeler is requested to correspond at once with his father at Lobos.

Another truly outrageous case. Three men named, Milani, Destaffani and Diodati have just been released from the Penitentiary as not guilty by Judge Insiarte, after nine months imprisonment. They appear to have been arbitrarily clapped into jail on the strength of a 'cronista' paragraph in a native colleague, coolly accusing them of having murdered a man named James Crusty, and adding that the corpse had been found, James Crusty is alive and kicking, earning his daily crust, like the rest of us; yet these unfortunate men have no redress whatever against the police authorities, and no compensation for their imprisonment and consequent loss. Could such a monstrous case of injustice as this occur in any other civilized land under the sun?

There was great anxiety yesterday for more details about the Emperor of Russia's assassination, as most people suppose that some of his suite must have been either killed or wounded. This dastardly crime will encourage all the Socialists, Internationalists etc. in Europe to further attempts on other sovereigns. Either of two things will now occur in Russia—iron repression and wholesale measures against the Nihilists, or a stroke of the new Czar's pen that will turn Russia into a Constitutional Kingdom, save himself from his father's fate, and secure his dynasty on the throne. His antecedents point to the latter course.

The foot and mouth disease is raging amongst the cattle in Santa Fe, so farmers who are forced by the drought to drive their cattle towards the frontiers of that province should be extremely careful.

Miss Margarita Faquet, a young lady who is described by our Montevidean colleagues as moving in the highest circles there, performed a most heroic act last week, for which the Royal Humane Society would most certaialy give her a medal, if it had occurred in England. While she and several other ladies were bathing, a little boy who was similarly occupied some short distance off, was carried out of his depth and cried loudly for help. Miss F. did not hesitate a moment, but dashed boldly into the waves, and, being a splendid swimmer, succeeded in saving the child, landing him safe and sound on the beach, amid tremendous cheering from a crowd of people who had witnessed her daring feat. All honour to this gallant young lady. May she get a perfect husband, if there be such a creature.

The capture of Lima has floored the comestible men there, who had laid in large supplies, anticipating a long siege. Flour has fallen 60 per cent since the Chilians entered.

The entry of the Chilian troops into Valparaiso on their return from Peru was a sight never before witnessed in South America. There were 20 triumphal arches. The people seemed mad with joy, and the victorious warriors were literally covered with flowers thrown by the fairest hands in Chile. The town was illuminated, and for two days all business was suspended and nothing but rejoicing went on. At Santiago the scene was repeated.

The Marina Club announce swimming matches on Sunday next at Barracas.

A new time-table will come into force on the Campana Railway on the 1st of April. We will publish it to-morrow.

'VILORTA.'

B. Ayres, March 14, 1881.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir

This evening I accidentally came across a pamphlet entitled 'La Tranca.' I bought it simply out of curiosity, seeing by the cover that it related to cricket, though what relation the word 'Tranca' had to do with cricket I must confess I was at a loss to know; perhaps, Mr Editor, you will be kind enough to enlighten me! The author's object, I allow, is praiseworthy in trying to bring this manly game under the notice of young Argentines, but I think he ought to have been a little more careful in the selection of his title. If he had taken up any Spanish and English dictionary, he would have found the proper Spanish word for cricket, viz., 'Vilorta,' whereas 'Tranca,' as far as I can find out, means 'crossbar.'

With the exception of various grammatical errors, the rest of this little work is good, and a liberal translation of our best Code of English cricket rules. The result, however, is deplorable, inasmuch as it is highly absurd. Imagine, my dear Mr Editor, speaking of a bowler as a 'boleador,' and a 'batsman' as a 'batador.'

On the whole I think it would certainly be a drawback to the noble game to have its own peculiar terms mangled in this way; and the worst of it is, our friends the gauchos might resent the boleador business as an insult.

Hoping you will excuse my occupying your valuable space so long, on the plea that I do it in the interest of aspiring Argentines and of cricketers in general.

I remain, dear Sir,
Yours very truly,
'Umpire.'

ON 'CHANGE.

March 15th, 1881

Patacons	29.20
Cedulas A	94¾
National Bank Shares	77¼

The gold market ruled very firm to-day; prices opened at 29.15 and closed at 29.20, having sold up to 29.25 and then flattened; prices for the end of the month ruled weaker, and it was said by many that the market is greatly overbought for that date. The cash sales were very heavy and reached 301,813 pats, and the total sales of the day 974,813 pats.

Cedulas gave way a trifle, and were sold cash at 94¾.

In National Bank Shares some new buyers entered, and the market rose to 78 for end of the month closing at 77¾, and for the end of April at 78⅝.

The meeting of the Yellow House deposits shareholders, as appears by notice, has been fixed for another day and another locality These shares now look well and may be considered worth par or near it.

There was nothing certain about the loan to-day, and a rumour in the Comercio del Plata to the effect that Sr Cortinez was about to resign and Dr Plaza to take office, gave rise to supposition that there was a split in the cabinet on the loan question; we, however, know nothing of the matter beyond the news talked of on 'Change.

Mr Kincaid took leave of his friends on 'Change, he goes to-night in the Villarino to Patagones. Mr Forrester, Don Jose B. Sala and Mr Hade who arrived up from Montevideo, were welcomed on 'Change; they report the bathing down there splendid and Pocitos crowded.

Captain Nielsen, commander of the German steamer Hamburg, was welcomed on 'Change he arrived here on Sunday 13th at 6 p.m., has discharged 1500 tons cargo and to-day at 2 o'clock had all the cargo discharged and 600 tons of homeward cargo taken in for Germany; such great despatch proves the Captain.

Freights rule very firm, and all the steamers find abudance of cargo; the rates now are 30s and 10 percent, and 30 frcs and 10 per cent. The steamers loading the mules for the Cape will leave about the end of the month.

Several resales at very handsome profits of Rio Negro lands have been effected in these days by Mr Rom at his Central Land Office; we recommend those of our readers who have bought Rio Negro lands to call at Mr Rom's office and inspect his splendid map of the Rio Negro territory with all the estancias marked out and the names of the different owners; it is the only map of the kind that exists, and is most invaluable to all those who have purchased these properties

Exchange nothing doing, rates rule the same, and takers hold back in the expectation that as large amounts for the Western Railway will probably be soon drawn for the rates will advance.

To-day the Municipality again assembled in the Government House Department of the Minister of the Interior. Mr Alvear presented the Minister with a complete balance-sheet, showing the actual deficits, the estimated and the actual revenue of the Board, and the properties, which it holds. Mr Alvear in a lengthened speech explained the financial position of the Board and the heavy debts that it would be necessary to consolidate; Dr. del Viso, Minister of Interior, called in his Secretary, Sr. Alvarez, and had the various documents read.—The Minister considered that it would be desirable to know the values of the Municipal properties, and those which could be easily realized; Mr Dias Velez suggested that instead of selling off these properties it would be better to Mortgage them to the Mortgage Bank and take out Cedulas.—Mr Mulhall believed that no such Mortgage could be made, and that the Bank would not and could not advance a Cedula on them; the credit of the board was too low in the market to attempt any emprestito and the only way to restore its credit in the market was to pay the coupons on the Municipal Bond.—Mr Alvear said the Bank held nearly all the Bonds and might easily advance the money to pay the public the coupons. Mr. Devotto thought the Bank could do nothing of the kind. — Mr. Mulhall stated that these Municipal Bonds he'd by people here and in Europe, who believed in the credit of the Municipality and of the Provincial Government that some of the private Banks held them, and that he knew parties who had put all their savings into these Municipal Bonds hold over a million of them, are living in Europe and have not the price of their breakfast.

Dr D. I Viso considered the matter of the very highest importance, as it was notorious the Bank only held 35 millions, and the balance was held by the public. Mr Leies as stated that the Nat. Government for its own security ought to take over the exclusive service of this debt, as the Municipality had no business entering the market and issuing bonds. Mr Mulhall fully concurred and stated that from what Mr Alvear told them, these bonds might just as well be called Tucuman or Cordovese bonds as Municipal bonds since the proceeds of these bonds, or at least a large portion of them went to the Prov. Government and not to the Municipality: the public had, however, nothing to do with that, it was a scandal that the coupons are unpaid, and he hoped for the honor and credit of the country both at home and abroad that the matter would at once be settled, the coupons paid and due steps taken that the service of the debt never again suffer such a discreditible interruption. The Minister proposed that a Committee be named composed of Messrs Dias Velez and Grondona, with the Contador, to make out a statement of accounts between the Municipality and Provincial Government, and that a Committee composed of Señors Devotto, Ledesma and Parodi be named to value the Municipal properties, and report what they would sell for. The meeting then separated.

There are buyers for large tracts of this land, say ten square leagues at higher premiums, but owing to the great drought most of the buyers hold the land in reserve for their own stock, which must be driven outside if the rain does not come.
A new law has been passed ordering that henceforward the Public Credit Office take charge of the service of the Empresito Popular. This stock each year increases in value instrinsically, owing to the terms of the loan, and the luckiest holders are those whose numbers are not drawn for amortization at par.
Don Nicandro Dorr sold to-day by order of Judge Zavalia the well known Bahia of San Blas, one of the most beautiful spots on the whole Argentine coast, midway between Bahia Blanca and Patagones, and formerly in the possession of Don Candido Galvan, who for many years had an estancia there. The bay is one of the finest, admitting vessels of the largest tonnage. The land measures 2 square leagues and this, with a suerte of estancia on the Rio Negro, opposite Mr Kincaid's, was knocked down for 170,000 m/c., being more than double the legal valuation, which was 82,000 m/c. Mr Herman Altgelt, in his important corn circular, gives the following:—
"The arrivals of wheat &c. during the last week were:—

Wheat	653,000 kilos.
Flour	154,000
Maize	113 000
Flax	51,000

"Exports of the week—

Flax	480,000 kilos.
Hay	749,000

"The following is a comparative statement of the arrivals of cereals during the months of January and February of the following years:

	1881.	1880.	1879.
	Kilos.	Kilos.	Kilos.
Wheat	10,000,000	11,500,000	16,100,000
Flax	1,600,000	754,000	929,000

or 405,000 kilos less wheat and 900,000 kilos more flour in 1881 than in 1880.
"Wheat—We notice a fresh rise though not an important one in the current prices. The arrivals are not as important as might have been expected from the anticipated yield of the crop, and it is probable that the article will not suffice for export; nevertheless, the crop is a heavy one for local consumption. The situation of the market is pretty singular, and the wheat growers, owing to the favorable crops of the last years, are so very well off that they can afford to store their wheat and patiently await a change in the market. The prices, as they are at present, are most favorable to them. Besides the buyers immediately took up the new crop, as there remained no wheat in the market from the previous year. A rare occurrence. Thus already one-fifth of the wheat crop has been consumed; the millers are limited to the same stock as before. Costa wheat was sold in the Plaza Once from $190 to 210 per fanega; in the South Market one very heavy lot fetched $210; also Salado kinds are quoted at $170 to 180. Some heavy deposits of Rosario wheat, mixed qualities, were moved off at $187 per 9 arrobas; 25 to 30,000 arrobas of Sta. Fe wheat have been contracted at 12½ Bolivianos per 15 ar. on board at Santo Tomé, equal to $150 per 9 ar in this market. We cannot yet well know the total yield of the present wheat crop. Owing to the drought in the camp the mills are at a standstill, and this occasions great activity in this market. Prices are favorable, although the panaderos refuse to pay $34 per arroba. Next week there will be a squeeze, and the bakers will be purchasing at prices much higher than the present ones' Flour market closes very firm for retail sales and easy for wholesale purchases. Three per cent of the maize crop lost owing to the drought."
The following late news about the Antwerp produce market, from Messrs Bunge & Co. of that city, under date February 10th, 1881, is important:—
Wool—
Since the close of our public sales only a very limited business has been transacted and the market has ruled dull at barely maintained rates. The condition of trade is such as to call forth numerous expressions of discontent, and manufacturers limit their purchases to strictest necessity. The early predictions of an active season to open with the new year have come to nought, and with receipts becoming more liberal and stocks increasing, goods are weakly held in anticipation of a still lower market in the near future.
The following is now our statistical position:—

650 cabezas mestizas Durham, verdaderas Short-horn, que se pusieron en rodeo en un solo potrero, alambrado desde el año 1862, tienen por origen el troso mas escojido de la hacienda que vendio en esa epoca la afamada estancia del Sr Alfaro (de Canuelas) y nunca han sido servidas sino por toros puros de lo mejor, importados uno y otros de la renombrada cabaña de los 'Tapiales,' por cuya razon tiene este ganado la misma pureza de sangre, ofreciendo la ventaja que la paricion de los ultimos anos esta toda crejana.

DE

De las razas, vacuno, caballar y lanar

Del gran Establecimiento

BLANDENGUES

Partido de Chascomus

Sobre la via ferrea del Sud

TREN ESPRESO IDA Y VUELTA

Que tendra lugar los dias 25, 26 y 27 de Marzo.

Habiendo vendido el magnifico y valioso establecimiento conocido por Blandengues, al Sr D Benito Lando y no habiendo entrado en esa venta los ganados finos de todas las especies, el propietario nos ha autorizado para proceder a su realizacion en remate publico, en lotes pequeños al gusto de los compradores.

Como las haciendas de que se trata son casi en su mayor parte finas y cuya venta demandara mas tiempo necesitandose como es consiguiente mas de un dia de remate, y en el deseo de que los señores que quieran asistir a el, puedan hacerlo con toda comodidad, hemos creido conveniente fijar la gran feria para tres dias, y en oportunidad anunciaremos el dia y hora de la salida del tren espreso.

El establecimiento Blandengues es celebre por sus crias finas y aunque nunca ha presentado sus productos en los remates que se dan en la ciudad.

Todos los criadores de la Republica saben que alli no se han encomiendado dinero, ni se han ahorrado gastos para estar a la vanguardia de los primeros establecimientos del pais, y asi es que desde muchos anos atras se han introducido alli los mejores animales que se necesitaban para el refinamiento de las razas tanto lanar como caballar, yeguarizo y vacuno de todo lo cual hay animales especiales, ya sean puros como mestizos.

Las especies que existen en 'Blandengues' se componen de majadas, tipos de cabana en ovejas y padres puros Rambouillet de la Cabaña Imperial, hoy Nacional de Francia, majadas Lincoln servidas por carneros puros importados directamente de Europa, majadas finas Rambouillet, yeguas puras Normandas, yeguas puro sangre de carrera importadas de Inglaterra. En esta raza (la yeguariza) hay animales notables y de gran merito, de distintas razas, cervidas por magnificos padrillos puros introducidos directamente de Europa y lo mejor que ha venido al pais.

En el ganado vacuno mestizo hay animales de mucho merito, y en cuanto a lo puro, hay vacas, vaquillonas y toros de la raza Durham que estamos seguros no dejaran nada que desear. al anunciar este aviso a los senores hacendados tanto de esta Republica como de la Oriental e Imperio del Brazil, lo hacemos con el objeto de que se vengan preparando para este ramate que podemos reputar como el mas importante que se ha dado hasta hoy entre nosotros de ganados finos de todas las especies.

Hoy que esta demostrado de una manera evidente que la riqueza de nuestra tierra consiste en la ganaderia, y que cuanto mas nos dediquemos a su refinamiento, tanto mas aumenta la riqueza publica y privada por el valor que toman las especies y los campos, nos parece oportuno llamar la atencion de los Sres. Hacendados, para que con tiempo se preparen a adquirir animales finos de toda especie nacidos en el pais e importados directamante, ya aclimatados y que no se ofrecen todos los dias en venta.

The Patagonia's Mails.

London, 14th Feb. 1881

In the Commons, Sir George Campbell having asked if the Government would now offer to the Boers the terms they considered to be just instead of enforcing unconditional surrender, Mr Gladstone stated that only a day or two since a telegram was sent to Gen. Colley instructing him to inform President Brand that the Government would be ready to give all reasonable guarantees as to the treatment of the Boers if they desisted from armed opposition, and that a scheme would be framed with the view of the permanent and friendly settlement of difficulties. Lord Hartington, in reply to Baron de Worms, said the letter from Gen. Stoletoff to the Afghan Minister at Cabul, advising him to make peace openly and in secret prepare for war, was authentic, but the Government did not intend in consequence of that letter to alter their policy with reference to Afghanistan. Sir C Dilke said the representations of the various trading and commercial classes of this country on the subject of commercial treaties had been laid before the French Government, who, however, would not accede to them. As to Spain and Portugal there was reason to hope that the representations of the British Government would have a favourable result.

Mr A O'Connor called attention to an article in the World, which stated in effect that the Irish members of that house were delegates of the Land League, and received 15 guineas a week for their services in the house. He indignantly denied the imputation on behalf of himself and other members of the party, and moved that the article was a breach of the privileges of the house. Mr M'Coan seconded the resolution. The Prime Minister expressed his sympathy with the hon. gentlemen. If they wanted to have the sympathy of the house in repudiating the injurious and highly offensive imputations, he would assure them that they possessed that sympathy. Under these circumstances he appealed to them on the ground of prudence and good feeling not to carry the matter further, Sir Stafford Northcote expressed his concurrence with the Prime Minister. After some remarks from Mr Justin M'Carthy (who denied the existence of any fact whatever on which to found such an intolerable accusation), Dr Commins, Mr Newdegate, and Mr Gray, Mr A O'Connor accepted the generous expressions of the Prime Minister and the leader of the Opposition, and withdrew the motion. The house then went into committee on the coercion bill.

At Loughrea Sessions yesterday Mr J Habon, a Land Leaguer, was committed to prison for 3 months and bound over to keep the peace for 12 months, for a seditious speech, in which he declared himself an Irish Republican, owing no allegiance to the British Crown, and called on his hearers to strike a final blow for the independence of Ireland.

Four cows, the property of John Joyce, of Castlebar, were yesterday found drowned in about nine feet of water, with hemp ropes round their necks. The place where they were discovered is about two miles from the farm on which the cattle were placed. Joyce displeased the branch of the Land League some time ago through taking a few acres after being cautioned not to do so.

At the police-court, Ballandine, yesterday, two farmers named James Daly and Edward Keane were prosecuted for having, on the night of the 10th Dec. last, unlawfully assembled, with other parties unknown on the townland of Burris, in the county of Mayo. After a lengthened hearing the magistrates committed the accused for trial to the next Mayo assizes, admitting them to bail. A number of police attended to prevent any disturbance, but were not required.

Mr Robert Hart, a Conservative landlord, residing near Portadown, has granted an abatement of the whole year's rent to the tenantry on his Kilmaranty estate. Bonfires were lit in the evening in honour of the event.

Our Dublin correspondent telegraphs last night: A meeting of the Kildare tenants of the Duke of Leinster was held to-day in Kildare for the purpose of considering the proposal of his grace to accept payment of his rents, making an allowance of 20 per cent. The proceedings were in marked contrast with a meeting which took place here some time since, when a copy of the Leinster lease was publicly burned in the market place. The chair was taken by the Rev. James Kavanagh, P. P. who said that their purpose was to consider resolutions passed there at a former meeting, when it was resolved that the tenants should only pay rent at Griffith's valuation pending the settlement of the land question in Parliament. They had promised then that, if the bill were to have a retrospective effect, they would pay their rents in accordance with its provisions. It was reported that some of the tenants had already paid their rents, accepting the allowance made by his grace, and as he (the chairman) had been consulted by some gentlemen, he thought it better to see whether they were resolved to keep to their former purpose, or whether they would pay their rents, deducting 20 p cent. The following resolution was carried: "That the tenants on the Duke of Leinster's property do not adhere to their former resolution, and that they shall pay their rents accepting the allowance of 20 p. cent, offered by his grace," only three tenants out of about fifty present voting against the motion.—Mr Heffernan moved that the tenantry should not go to Dublin to pay their rent. He proposed that Mr Hamilton be requested to come on Thursday week to receive the rent. Mr Patrick Keane seconded the resolution. The Chairman thought it better to let Mr Hamilton fix the day. The tenants could then meet him in Kildare. Mr Kelly opposed. He said Mr Hamilton would not come, and that it was better that the tenants should go to Dublin and pay their rents. He proposed an amendment to that effect. The amendment not having been seconded, the resolution was put and carried, Mr Kelly alone dissenting. One of the tenants asked what was to be done if Mr Hamilton did not come down? Another tenant told him to keep his money in his pocket. Mr Heffernan said that some of the tenants paid 50, 60, or 70 per cent. over Griffith's valuation. That was an exorbitant rent, and some of the tenants would hold out against it, for they were not able to pay a rack rent. If they held out he thought a resolution should be passed promising to sustain them. A tenant said that the tenants on the town land on which he lived had been fully resolved to stick to the resolution which had been adopted at the Land League meeting, but others had gone behind their backs and had paid their rents.

Some days ago an extraordinary sensation was produced throughout Germany by the announcement, in a Dusseldorf journal, that the Heir-Apparent to the Roumanian throne, Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern's second son, a lad of sixteen, had been kidnapped by Dacian Nihilists while walking in a garden at six a.m.,—an uncommonly early hour for exercise, considering the time of the year—and conveyed in a carriage to Sturzelberg, where he had contrived to escape from his abductors. On the road he had been stripped, and his hair had been cut close to his head. He walked into town the same afternoon, barefoot, and in a most dilapidated condition; and, when asked to give an account of himself, told the above thrilling tale, which, however, did greater credit to his inventiveness than to his veracity; for he subsequently confessed that he had derived all its startling details from his inner consciousness, and that his mysterious absence, capillary bereavement and loss of raiment were, one and all, episodes in a juvenile escapade of his own devising and execution. With such a promising beginning, what sort of King might this ingenious young Prince be expected to turn out, when, if ever, he ascends the throne?

STATE OF IRELAND

Dublin, Thursday Night.

Two cases illustrative of the lawless spirit prevailing in the country and the determination not to pay rent, came before the Court of Queen's Bench to-day, on application for leave to substitute service of writs In the first, Westropp v. Egan, a large sum is due for rent by tenants on an estate in Clare. A process server endeavouring to serve writs on them was driven off, barely escaping with life, and on his way home he was met by five men, who asked him was he a bailiff. He said he was a water bailiff, and to this occupation they said they had no objection, but told him that if he were an ordinary bailiff dealing in writs for ejectments, they would drown him in the nearest bog-hole. In the other case (Newton v. Scallon) where 12 tenants were proceeded against for non-payment of rent, it was deposed that several attempts to serve writs were defeated by large assemblages of people, summoned by beating of drums and blowing of horns, the last defeat of the law being so recent as the 5th inst. This property is situate at Mohill, county Leitrim. In both cases it was sworn that an attempt to effect personal service to put processes on the houses could only be made under strong armed escort, and with great danger to life. The Court made orders for substituted services in various forms.

Two troops of Dragoons, 200 of the 76th Regiment, and a force of Constabulary left Castlebar this morning for Toxford, where a number of persons are being prosecuted at the Petty Sessions for offences in connection with the land agitation. The Dragoons at Castlebar were reinforced by troops from Ballinrobe, both leaving together, fully equipped.

The five Tralee Land Leaguers, after five weeks' incarceration, were discharged on bail to-day. A band of about 1000 people met them on their release and escorted them into the town, where Mr Harrington, one of the traversers, addressed the crowd from the Liberal Registration Club. He stated that the Government was cowed, or they would not be allowed out; and he warned the British Government that no amount of coercion would frighten them. They would defiantly persevere until they obtained what the people of Ireland wanted.

A land meeting was announced to be held at Geashill, in which place a dispute has taken place between Lord Digby and his tenantry, who refuse to pay him more than Griffith's valuation. The meeting was proclaimed on sworn information that it was got up for the purpose of intimidating Lord Digby, his agent, and those tenants who had paid, or were about to pay, their rent. Sixty police attended, but the proclamation had the desired effect, and no attempt was made to hold the meeting.

A meeting on the land question was held to-day near Portaferry, county Down; Mr W J Hurst, J P, presided. A series of resolutions were adopted in favour of the three F.'s, also expressing confidence in Mr Gladstone, and condemning the action of the House of Lords in rejecting the Compensation for Disturbance Bill, expressing the hope that that assembly would, in reference to the forthcoming Land Bill, act more in harmony with the views of the House of Commons, declaring also that the Coercion Bill was unnecessary, and that in its stead there should be a comprehensive measure of Land Reform.

A monster land meeting was held to-day at Cullyhana, county Armagh, presided over by the Rev. Mr. Quinn, Catholic curate. Among the speakers were Presbyterian ministers and Catholic priests, who deprecated the Coercion Bill as aiming a blow at the constitutional freedom of Ireland. An Orangeman assured the meeting that the Land League principles had the sympathy and approval of the great majority of the brethren connected with the order. Resolutions were passed protesting against coercion, and pledging the farmers not to take land from which a tenant would be ejected for inability to pay a rack rent.

The Land League branches in many of the Ulster counties have by resolution determined to nominate as candidates, in opposition to those poor law guardians who have held aloof from the land agitation, farmers and others who are members of the League. The elections, which take place in March, are consequently looked forward to with unusual interest.

Lord Dufferin has granted to his tenantry a reduction of 15 per cent. in their rents.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

—o—

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diptheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis. &c.

Extracts from Medical Opinions.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

33—Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury—33. LONDON
